ORAL JUDGEMENT

1. Rule. As all the respondents are represented by the advocates, the matter is taken up for final hearing.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

2. I find sufficient merits in the contention raised by the learned counsel for the respondent No.2 that this petition is premature. In para-11 (B) of the special civil application, the petitioner prayed for quashing and setting aside the action of the respondent No.2 of transferring him from District Panchayat, Bharuch to District Panchayat, Narmada.

3. This order has not been passed so far and this approach of the petitioner to this Court at this stage is nothing but only an abuse of the process of the Court. Not only this, it unnecessarily consumes the precious and valuable time of the Court which is already facing serious problem to overcome heavy pendency of the matters.

4. The special civil application is dismissed. Rule discharged.
